Bringing Forth the Light of Christ

Call to Worship

One: The people who lived in shadows have seen a great light;

Many: Those who dwell in a land of deep gloom, on them has light shined.

One: For to us a child is born,

Many: To us a child is given;

One: And the government will be upon this child’s shoulder,

Many: And the child’s name shall be called “Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Parent, Bringer of Peace.”

One: Of the increase of this government and of peace there will be no end.

Many: The zeal of the God of hosts will do this.

Hymn

“Good Christian Friends, Rejoice”

NCH #12

Prayer of Invocation

Most gracious God: We greet the dawning of this day with shouts of Noel! For now is born among us the bringer of peace, whose name affords us cause for joyful celebration and gives the nations the sure knowledge of redeeming love. Enter now our celebration. Laugh and sing with us as we rejoice in the carols of jubilation. May our songs and prayers and shouts resound to the glory of your holy name and honor the name of Jesus, our infant Savior. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD TO US

The Gospel Lesson

Luke 2:1-20

Caroline Jacobus

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

Prayers of the People

Prayer with One Voice

Out of the noise and glitter and ho-ho-ho of the world's Christmas, we have come away, O God, into this hour in your presence. Help us to discover here the true meaning and joy that lie beneath the surface of the holy day. Help us to see beyond the Baby in the manger to the man Jesus became, to test our lives by teachings and example. Enable us to see beyond the human Jesus to your own incredible love reaching out to us through him, giving wisdom and power for the journeys of our lives. Then send us out to spread the word that you have been born among us. Through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Our Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
