Call to Worship

One: And Jesus said, “Come!”

Many: To all mothers and all children: he said, “Come!”

One: to the motherless and the childless: he said, “Come!”

Many: to all who long to be mothered: he said, “Come!”

One: Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy-laden,

Many: and I will give you rest.

One: Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,

Many: for I am gentle and humble of heart, and you will find rest for your souls.” Amen.

Invocation

The spirit of God calls us from many places: some of us come from busy homes with many people; some of us live alone. We are a part of the family. This week has been different for each of us: some of us have had happy news we want to celebrate; some of us have faced grief and need to cry. We are members of God’s family. Yet, we all come to this same place: all of us are seeking God’s presence in our lives; all of us are seeking God’s presence with each other. In this space, we become God’s family. Amen.

The New Testament Reading

Acts 9:36-43

Susan Donovan

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them, and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile, he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

The Gospel Reading

John 10:22-30

Susan Donovan

At that time, the Festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in God's name testify to me, but you do not believe because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. My God is greater than all else, considering what has been given to me, and no one can snatch them out of the God's hand because we are one."

The Pastoral Prayer

Our Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Prayer Response

*Lord, listen to your children praying,
Lord, send your Spirit in this place;
Lord, listen to your children praying,
Send us love, send us pow'r, send us grace.*

Offertory Invitation

*The Doxology PH #515

Old Hundredth

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*Prayer of Dedication

Collective Creator, we thank you for the gifts of the people—from our ancestors to our elders and to those who have still yet to come. We will share what we have so that all can flourish and follow you. Amen.

*Closing Hymn

"Praise to God, the World's Creator"

to the Tune of Nettleton found in NCH #459

*Praise to God, the world's creator,
source of life and growth and breath,
cradling in her arms her children,
holding them from birth to death.*

*In our bodies, in our living,
strength and truth of all we do,
God is present, working with us,
making us creators too.*

*Praise to God our saving Wisdom, meeting us with love and grace,
helping us to grow in wholeness,
giving freedom, room, and space.*

*In our hurting, in our risking,
in the thoughts we dare not name,
God is present, growing with us,
healing us from sin and shame.*

*Praise to God, the Spirit in us,
prompting hidden depths of prayer,
firing us to long for justice,
reaching out with tender care.*

*In our searching, in our loving,
in our struggles to be free,
God is present, living in us,
pointing us to what shall be.*

“Invitation to Share Time, Talent, and Treasure”

When you give to First Congregational Church, you make possible our ministries that serve all God’s people. Your gifts share the love of Jesus all year long. The act of giving is our personal expression of worship and also keeps our church financially healthy. Stewardship is not payment for services rendered. It is an act of faith and devotion to God. You may go to the following link to give now:
